

MailSite ExpressPro Calendaring Functionality

This document describes both how to share MailSite Calendars with other users from within MailSite ExpressPro, and how to subscribe to remote calendars from MailSite ExpressPro or from other Systems.

PUBLISHING A MAILSITE CALENDAR

In MailSite ExpressPro you can choose to share a calendar with others who might use a variety of calendar clients.

Create a new calendar of the "Personal" type. Highlight this calendar and right click, choose 'Publish' then 'Generate New View'.
